(July 1st) Beginning of the new fiscal year to the Governor’s Office of Management and Budget (GOMB).

The Legislative General Session begins the 4th Monday in January.
Utah Const. Art. VI, Sec. 2

GOMB, the Legislative Fiscal Analyst, and the Utah State Tax Commission develop consensus revenue estimates.

Appropriations subcommittees approve base budgets and prioritize funding adjustments.

The Governor must release the recommended budget no later than 30 days before the Legislature convenes.
UCA 63J-1-201(1)

State agencies and public and higher education submit planned budgets for the next fiscal year to the Governor’s Office of Management and Budget (GOMB).
UCA 63J-1-201(3)(a)

The Legislative General Session lasts 45 calendar days.
Utah Const. Article VI Sec. 16

The Executive Appropriations Committee approves base budgets and other appropriations bills. The bills are passed by the full Legislature.

The Governor may sign or veto bills passed by the Legislature. The Governor may veto an appropriations line item. The last day to sign or veto bills is 20 days after the end of the session. The Legislature can override a veto with a two-thirds vote. Bills that are not signed or vetoed become law.
Utah Const. Art. VII, Sec. 8

Utah Constitutions:
Utah Const. Art. VI, Sec. 2
Utah Const. Article VI Sec. 16
Utah Const. Art. VII, Sec. 8